Morals," written in 1869, says:
"Honesty, it is said, is the best policy —a fact, however, which depends very much upon the condition of the police force."

THE CASE OF
LEO M. FRANK.

A few days ago the Supreme Court of Georgia denied the third appeal for a new trial of Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan in a pencil factory at Atlanta. His attorneys will take the case to the Supreme Court of the United States. Should that tribunal refuse to interfere, there will be but one resource left—application to the Governor of Georgia for mitigation of the death sentence or pardon of the accused. Should such an appeal be made to the executive, he will find himself up against a serious proposition, the trial court, Supreme Court of the state and the tribunal of last resort having affirmed the decision of the trial jury in Atlanta.

There are many people who honestly believe Frank is innocent of the horrible crime ascribed to him, while equally as many more believe he had a fair trial and that his conviction was just.

The case has attracted interest throughout the United States and is in no wise restricted to Atlanta.
Horseback opinions have been given by friends and foes of the unfortunate young man, and now that the Georgia Court of Appeals has affirmed the action of the lower tribunal the newspapers are again taking up the case, some of the more prominent of the country announcing that a series of articles concerning Frank will appear.

The Gazette will not add its opinion to the many that have been made. We will merely say that the Phagan girl was murdered, and that her slayer, in the interest of law and order, should suffer for the crime. There is a possibility of Frank being innocent of actual murder, while the circumstances are decidedly against him, and the trial court, as well as the Supreme tribunal of Georgia having adjudged him guilty as indicted, their action should not be questioned hastily.

Frank is of a historic and time-honored race. Like Dreifus, he is of Jewish birth, and many prefer to believe that this fact has had much to do with the trial and conviction.
In the United States, where a man's nationality has become so much a subject of discussion, it is not surprising to see why certain persons are so anxious to view the Frank case through a colored glass.
In the eyes of a person of Jewish blood the trial to the bar in this country to answer for a capital crime, hence the many of the tribes of Israel in the United States naturally hope the young man will establish his innocence.

NO NEED FOR
WAR PAINT.

When Theodore Roosevelt was President of the United States on one occasion he advocated a military system for this country similar to those of Europe. In other words, he would compel all males of America to become soldiers and devote the flower of their lives to drilling and being ready at a few hours' notice to join the colors.

Some men high up in the military and naval departments of the United States now that a general conflagration is in progress across the ocean, insist that the United States should become a war machine as has Germany. The American Federation of Labor has taken issue with these enthusiasts and suggest that nations are like individuals. When the latter carry pistols, dirks, slingshots, black jacks, brass knuckles, etc., they are looking for opportunities to break the peace. Fully armed countries are also anxious to try their ordnance upon some country, and they generally find pretenses for bringing on a clash of arms.

There is much being said at present about the so-called unpreparedness of the United States for eventualities, and enthusiasts are urging the building of a tremendous navy and the raising of a huge army. In order to do the latter thousands of males now entering manhood would be taken from the plow, the workshop and office to play soldiers—an order of thing millions have left the older countries to evade.

"The 16,000,000 men of military age in the United States," said Gen.
James A. Drain, editor of Arms and The Man, at the Commercial Club's weekly luncheon yesterday, "if properly trained and equipped, would make an army so invincible that no other nation in the world would dare to attack this country. Thus would peace be assured."

We fail to see the need of any such procedure. At every emergency since the days of seventy-six the people of the United States have rushed to the colors without the aid of despotic drill sergeants. They will do the same voluntarily when actually needed as they have always done in times past.

RUSSIAN MYTH BURIED.

Story of Passage of Czar's Troops Through Britain Denied.

London, Nov. 19.—The Russian myth, the story which gained widespread circulation some months ago that a Russian force of 80,000 men from Archangel had been loaded in Scotland and thence moved to France, was officially buried in the House of Commons yesterday by a definite announcement that no Russian troops ever had moved through Great Britain for the western arena of the conflict.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. You can now get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Just massage MUSTEROLE in with the finger-tips gently. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.
Be sure you get the genuine MUS-TEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company,

It is not absolutely essential for stylish millinery to be at an extravagant cost.

We claim and maintain that our workrooms pro-style as our $50 pattern hats. These hats are entirely different than the so-advertised $5 factory made hat.

It possesses individuality and no quantity alike. They are trimmed in the very latest materials, such as ostrich plumes, fur, flowers, and all the desired fashionable trimmings and in all the new colors—White, Sand, American Beauty, and Poppy.
